EDITORIAL

Dear course participants,

The Language Center of the University of Vienna welcomes you to the summer intensive courses 2016!

Since 1922, a high quality of teaching and wide variety of courses make us the number one choice. More than 7000 participants attend our German courses each year. Our course levels comply with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), thus ensuring international comparability. Our highly motivated, educated and experienced team of instructors will enhance your learning process by means of communication-based and student-oriented teaching techniques. We are also an examination center for ÖSD (Österreichisches Sprachdiplom). We offer these exams on July 20 and 21, 2016.

Our summer course program is complemented by a broad range of optional excursions and leisure activities. We are also happy to arrange accommodation for you in conveniently situated student housing. Our courses take place on the campus of the University of Vienna and at other university buildings located in the center of Vienna.

We wish you a pleasant stay in Vienna!

The Team of the Language Center of the University of Vienna
